Digital Libraries of Mathematics - towards a World Directory of Mathematics

Katharina Habermann[1] <habermann@sub.uni-goettingen.de>

Mathematics as cultural heritage and as being unique among the sciences in its dependence on the past scholarly literature became an active field of several digitization projects. The goal is to create a World Digital Mathematics Library, realizing a universal library for mathematics. The talk presents an overview of these activities and will indicate future prospects.

---

[1]Nds. Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek Göttingen